wow thank Ms. Walenga for what you do. Just in time too, I was always told that troubles come to everyone in this world, but goodness and mercy follows the good, faithful and righteous. As you know I have a local civil court hearing on the eviction of my property tomorrow morning, which will only serve to exasperate the harming of me/business as per title 14.1 , so thanks to the timing of this docking notices I can now present this notice as an exhibit during the hearing in hopes that any harmful judgment toward me by the spaceport would be delayed or vacated. So thank you all and God bless you and yours.
